Recent Trends in the Valorization of Natural Products and Food Wastes

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue of Applied Sciences, entitled “Recent Trends in the Valorization of Natural Products and Food Wastes”, invites the submission of original research and review articles focused on innovative approaches to the sustainable exploitation of natural resources and agro-industrial by-products. Topics of interest include (but are not limited to) the following: (i) advanced extraction and purification techniques for natural products, (ii) utilization of food wastes as sources of bioactive compounds or biomaterials, (iii) green chemistry and environmentally friendly valorization strategies, (iv) development of functional ingredients and sustainable product formulations, and (v) technological and economic assessments of valorization pathways. We look forward to receiving your valuable contributions to this Special Issue.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

As the world of science becomes ever more specialized, researchers may lose themselves in the deep forest of the ever increasing number of subfields being created. This open access journal Applied Sciences has been started to link these subfields, so researchers can cut through the forest and see the surrounding, or quite distant fields and subfields to help develop his/her own research even further with the aid of this multi-dimensional network.
