Research and Application of Nanocatalysts

Message from the Guest Editors

We are pleased to invite you to contribute to this Special Issue, entitled "Research and Application of Nanocatalysts", which is dedicated to highlighting the latest advances, challenges, and future perspectives in this dynamic field. Nanocatalysts play a pivotal role in a wide range of sectors, including environmental remediation, sustainable energy conversion, green chemical synthesis, and biomedical applications. From metal nanoparticles and metal oxides to carbon-based nanostructures and hybrid materials, researchers continue to explore innovative strategies for tuning their catalytic performance through morphology control, surface functionalization, and synergistic interactions. This Special Issue brings together original research articles, reviews, and perspectives that span experimental, computational, and theoretical studies.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

As the world of science becomes ever more specialized, researchers may lose themselves in the deep forest of the ever increasing number of subfields being created. This open access journal Applied Sciences has been started to link these subfields, so researchers can cut through the forest and see the surrounding, or quite distant fields and subfields to help develop his/her own research even further with the aid of this multi-dimensional network.

Author Benefits

Open Access:

free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), Ei Compendex, Inspec, Embase, CAPIus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Engineering, Multidisciplinary) / CiteScore - Q1 (Fluid Flow and Transfer Processes)
