Special Issue

Artificial Intelligence in Search Engines: Applications, Trends, and Insights

Message from the Guest Editors

Artificial intelligence (AI) is revolutionizing search engines, enhancing their ability to deliver accurate, relevant, and personalized results. This Special Issue aims to explore the multifaceted applications of AI within search engines, covering areas such as trend analysis, predictive algorithms, user behavior modeling, and data-driven insights.

We welcome submissions that delve into how AI optimizes search engine performance, influences content ranking, and improves the user search experience, providing a comprehensive understanding of the evolving landscape of information retrieval and its implications for various fields.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

As the world of science becomes ever more specialized, researchers may lose themselves in the deep forest of the ever increasing number of subfields being created. This open access journal Applied Sciences has been started to link these subfields, so researchers can cut through the forest and see the surrounding, or quite distant fields and subfields to help develop his/her own research even further with the aid of this multi-dimensional network.
