Recent Developments in Orthodontics on Craniofacial Orthopedics

Message from the Guest Editors

It is our pleasure to invite you to contribute to this Special Issue concerning new approaches in orthodontics in craniofacial orthopedics. The aim of this Special Issue is to provide available evidence-based data regarding innovative advances and knowledge in craniofacial orthopedics as well as to present the recent therapeutic developments in the interceptive orthodontics field. In this Special Issue entitled “Recent Developments in Orthodontics in Craniofacial Orthopedics”, we will explore the most recent orthopedic–orthodontic therapies in growing patients and in adult subjects for the management of craniofacial anomalies. In this regard, clinical studies with the aim of proposing new techniques and approaches in this specific field as well as reviews of the literature (narrative reviews and systematic reviews) are welcome. Case reports and case series, involving the above topics, will also be considered. For further reading, please visit the Special Issue website.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

As the world of science becomes ever more specialized, researchers may lose themselves in the deep forest of the ever increasing number of subfields being created. This open access journal Applied Sciences has been started to link these subfields, so researchers can cut through the forest and see the surrounding, or quite distant fields and subfields to help develop his/her own research even further with the aid of this multi-dimensional network.
