Human–Machine Interaction Applications

Message from the Guest Editor

We are pleased to invite you to contribute to this Special Issue focusing on Human–Machine Interaction Applications. This Special Issue aims to showcase cutting-edge research and innovative solutions that advance the understanding and implementation of HMI in real-world contexts.

In this Special Issue, original research articles and reviews are welcome. Research areas may include (but are not limited to) the following:

Intelligent user interfaces and adaptive systems;

Multimodal interaction and natural language processing;

Human–robot collaboration and assistive technologies;

Virtual, augmented, and mixed reality applications.

We look forward to receiving your contributions.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

As the world of science becomes ever more specialized, researchers may lose themselves in the deep forest of the ever increasing number of subfields being created. This open access journal Applied Sciences has been started to link these subfields, so researchers can cut through the forest and see the surrounding, or quite distant fields and subfields to help develop his/her own research even further with the aid of this multi-dimensional network.
