Recent Advances in Sports Injuries and Physical Rehabilitation

Message from the Guest Editor

Sports injuries and physical rehabilitation are interrelated. As the number of people participating in sports has increased, interest in these two fields has also increased. Updating the information and guidelines on sports injuries and physical rehabilitation based on the latest research is a persistently important goal in sports medicine. Our Special Issue covers the latest research on sports injuries and physical rehabilitation. Topics related to sports injuries and physical rehabilitation are welcome. We look forward to the active participation of researchers interested in this topic. We hope that this Special Issue will contribute to the field of sports medicine. Keywords

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

As the world of science becomes ever more specialized, researchers may lose themselves in the deep forest of the ever increasing number of subfields being created. This open access journal Applied Sciences has been started to link these subfields, so researchers can cut through the forest and see the surrounding, or quite distant fields and subfields to help develop his/her own research even further with the aid of this multi-dimensional network.
