

Special Issue

Conservation of Architectural Heritage. New Urban Perspectives: Conceptual, Methodological, Technical and Management Advances

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue aims to address new forms of analysis, evaluation, and diagnosis of heritage sites. These urban areas are undergoing complex transformation processes derived from the new ways of living in the contemporary city, which puts them at risk. In this context, tourism is presented as a driving force for heritage consolidation and urban regeneration. The discussions in this Special Issue will focus on (but are not limited to) the following thematic areas:

- Conceptual advances in urban and architectural heritage
- Identification and characterisation of new heritage typologies.
- The contribution of cultural heritage to sustainability and climate resilience.
- Tourism as a driver for the recovery and consolidation of heritage sites.
- The impact of tourism activity and gentrification processes in urban heritage areas.
- HBIM and GIS for cultural heritage preservation.
- Implementation of artificial intelligence and big data in heritage studies.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The journal Architecture is an outstanding platform for new ideas and for reporting the outcomes of your research. The subjects sought are wide ranging and include design strategies, form, and technology. The need to be innovative in a rapidly changing profession and building environment make this journal the ideal place to publish. We are open to creativity and out-of-the-box thinking.
