In this Special Issue, we will attempt to integrate models, methods, and also applications, not only in the scope of traditional natural sciences, but also opening the scope to education and other social sciences. Theory and data-driven models, even in a synergy that gives rise to producing fertile, multidisciplinary, and hybrid models, can be considered. Potential topics include but are not limited to:

Deadline for manuscript
submissions:
closed (30 June 2021)

- Numerical and modelling analysis
- Optimization and evolutionary algorithms models and methods
- Deterministic differential equations: methods and models
- Random differential equations: methods and models
- Numerical solution of large systems of linear and nonlinear equations
- Educational models and methods
- Social networks models and methods
- Engineering models and simulation
- Analysis modelling in economics and finance
- Algebraic models and methods with applications
- Intelligent data analysis models and methods

Axioms is dedicated to the foundations (structure and axiomatic basis, in particular) of mathematical theories, not only from a crisp or strictly classical sense, but also from a fuzzy and generalized sense. This includes the more innovative current scientific trends, devoted to discover and solve new challenging problems. The prime goal of Axioms is to publish first-class, original research articles under an open access policy with minimal fees for the authors. We would be pleased to welcome you as one of our authors.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High visibility: indexed within SCIE (Web of Science), dblp, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q1 (Mathematics, Applied)
