

Special Issue

Advances in Dynamical Systems and Control, 2nd Edition

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue is a continuation of our previous publication, "Advances in Dynamical Systems and Control". This Special Issue aims to compile further innovative research and developments in the areas of dynamical systems and control, both in theoretical and application advances. The study of dynamic systems and control is fundamental to promoting advances in engineering; therefore, submissions are welcome that consider (but are not limited to) the following topics:

- Chaos and bifurcations;
- Complex systems;
- Fractional difference equations;
- Fractional differential equations;
- Fuzzy control and fuzzy systems;
- Linear control systems;
- Math education in science and engineering;
- Matrix and spectral analysis;
- Modeling;
- Nonlinear control systems;
- Stability and robust stability;
- The stability of pseudo-polynomials and quasi-polynomials.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Axioms is dedicated to the foundations (structure and axiomatic basis, in particular) of mathematical theories, not only from a crisp or strictly classical sense, but also from a fuzzy and generalized sense. This includes the more innovative current scientific trends, devoted to discover and solve new challenging problems. The prime goal of Axioms is to publish first-class, original research articles under an open access policy with minimal fees for the authors. We would be pleased to welcome you as one of our authors.
