Education for Autistic Children and Young People

Message from the Guest Editor

I am the of a Special Issue for Behavioral Sciences on the topic of Education for Autistic Children and Young People. I invite you to consider submitting an abstract for this Special Issue, the aim of which is to bring together the most recent ideas and research in the autism and education field. In this Special Issue, we are particularly interested in strengths-informed approaches to autism and education, situated within a neurodiversity paradigm, underpinned by high-quality research. The age range is approximately 3–25 years. Submissions focusing on secondary/high school education and alternative settings are particularly welcome, as are studies drawn from low- and middle-income countries and those inclusive of minimally speaking and non-speaking autistic children and young people.

- Abstract Submission

Deadline: 30 September 2025

- Full Manuscript Submission

Deadline: 16 April 2026

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

With warm greetings, it is a pleasure to invite you to contribute a research article or comprehensive review for consideration and publication in Behavioral Sciences. Behavioral Sciences is an international, scientific, open access journal providing an advanced forum for discussions and research regarding the intersection between psychiatry, neuroscience, psychology, cognitive and behavioral sciences, and behavioral biology. More information are available at: <https://www.mdpi.com/journal/behavsci>. We would be pleased to welcome you as one of our authors and have the opportunity to consider your work for publication.
