Special Issue

Education for Autistic Children and Young People

Message from the Guest Editor

I am the of a Special Issue for Behavioral Sciences on the topic of Education for Autistic Children and Young People. I invite you to consider submitting an abstract for this Special Issue, the aim of which is to bring together the most recent ideas and research in the autism and education field. In this Special Issue, we are particularly interested in strengths-informed approaches to autism and education, situated within a neurodiversity paradigm, underpinned by high-quality research. The age range is approximately 3–25 years. Submissions focusing on secondary/high school education and alternative settings are particularly welcome, as are studies drawn from low- and middle-income countries and those inclusive of minimally speaking and non-speaking autistic children and young people.

- Abstract Submission

   Deadline: 30 September 2025
- Full Manuscript Submission

   Deadline: 16 April 2026
