

Special Issue

Implantable Medical Devices

Message from the Guest Editor

We are offering a Special Issue dedicated to research on implantable medical devices. The goal of this issue is to highlight cutting-edge research that has a high probability of leading to either improvements in or development of medical implants. The research presented can range from basic science studies to biomechanics and biomaterials work to testing in large animals. This issue will include a broad range of novel research related to medical devices across all sectors. Topics include, but are not limited to, research on development and evaluation of implants in the areas of:

- Orthopaedic and spine
- Cardiovascular
- Pulmonary
- Neural
- Drug delivery

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

You are invited to contribute a research article or a comprehensive review for consideration and publication in Bioengineering (ISSN 2306-5354). Bioengineering is published in open access format – research articles, reviews and other contents are released on the Internet immediately after acceptance. The scientific community and the general public have unlimited and free access to the content as soon as it is published. Bioengineering provides an advanced forum for the science and technology of bioengineering. We would be pleased to welcome you as one of our authors.

Editor-in-Chief

Department of Biomedical Engineering, Texas A&M University, College Station, TX 77843, USA

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, CAPIus / SciFinder, Inspec, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Engineering, Biomedical) Rapid Publication: manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 19.2 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 3.3 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2025).

Recognition of Reviewers:

reviewers who provide timely, thorough peer-review reports receive vouchers entitling them to a discount on the APC of their next publication in any MDPI journal, in appreciation of the work done.
