Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19)

Message from the Guest Editors

We are fighting a dreaded pandemic, coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), caused by severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2). COVID-19 looms as a serious medical crisis inflicting both human and economic suffering. How far this may progress is unpredictable. We live in a global village and, if each and every region of our world cannot keep the pandemic under control, the virus will continue to kill for a longer series of waves. In this context, the editors of Biology have set up an issue dedicated to COVID-19. For this Special Issue, we invite research articles on various aspects of this pandemic.

About the Journal

Message from the Editorial Board

A major strength of biological science is the diversity of approaches that biological scientists apply to their research problems. Biology reflects this diversity and brings together studies employing the varied experimental and theoretical approaches that are fueling biological discovery. Biology, the journal, is a fully peer-reviewed publication with a rapid and economical route to open access publication and is listed on PubMed. All articles are peer-reviewed and the editorial focus is on determining that the work is scientifically sound rather than trying to predict its future impact.
