Message from the Guest Editor

We are pleased to invite you to contribute to this Special Issue with original research articles and reviews, focused on new biological insights into the nature of circulating tumor cells in different tumor types. Topics of interest may include (but are not limited to) the following:

- New biological features of circulating tumor cells;
- Structural characteristics of circulating tumor cells;
- Structural/phenotypical-based classifications of circulating tumor cells;
- The impact of these newly identified CTC characteristics on the clinical decision-making process.

We look forward to receiving your manuscripts.
