

Special Issue

Terahertz Biosensing

Message from the Guest Editors

It is our great pleasure to announce a new Special Issue of Biosensors devoted to terahertz biosensing. It will cover both the theoretical and experimental advances of terahertz materials, spectroscopy, sensors, and imaging technology for biosensing. Particularly welcome are original works and reviews focusing on terahertz biosensors based on novel waveguides and devices. Taking into account that the validation of a supposition is usually realized via a cross-check, the use of combined approaches is also welcomed.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Biosensors is a leading journal, devoted to fast publication of the latest achievements, technological developments and scientific research in the exciting multidisciplinary area of biosensors. Both experimental and theoretical papers are published, including all aspects of biosensor design, technology, proof of concept and application. Special issues are devoted to specific technologies and applications, and a selection of the most outstanding papers each year is recognized. Pushing the boundaries of the discipline, we invite original papers, as well as timely reviews on cutting edge fields within the subject area.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, MEDLINE, PMC, Ei Compendex, Embase, CAPIus / SciFinder, Inspec, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q1 (Instruments and Instrumentation) / CiteScore - Q1 (Instrumentation)

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 20.6 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 3.5 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the second half of 2025).
