Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

There has never been a more hopeful time in the history of research on Huntington's Disease. We are on the cusp of discovering new ways to measure the disease, new medications that manage symptoms, and new interventions that alter the disease's course. This Special Issue of Brain Sciences aims to present work in progress or recently completed that will bring optimism to the scientific and clinical communities.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

You are invited to contribute a research article or a comprehensive review for consideration and publication in Brain Sciences (ISSN 2076-3425). Brain Sciences is an open access, peer-reviewed scientific journal that publishes original articles, critical reviews, research notes, and short communications on neuroscience. The scientific community and the general public can access the content free of charge as soon as it is published.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, Embase, PSYINDEX, CAPus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Rapid Publication: manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 15.6 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.5 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the second half of 2023).
