Exploring Rehabilitation Strategies and Biomarkers for Brain Injury

Message from the Guest Editor

We invite original research papers, reviews, and brief communications that mainly address the following topics: (i) biomarkers in assessing brain damage in acute TBI, particularly in mTBI victims with concussions, (ii) longitudinal and cross-sectional studies on the evolution of biomarkers in assessing brain structural and functional changes after TBI, (iii) novel methods identifying biomarkers in assessing brain-specific waste clearance pathways, i.e., the glymphatic system, after brain injury, (iv) neuropsychological assessment in monitoring cognitive functions and functional recovery after brain injury, (v) multi-modal biomarker approaches for better understanding the pathogenesis of comorbidities of TBI and other psychiatric disorders, and (vi) translational research utilizing biomarkers in subject-specific medicine in caring for TBI patients.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

You are invited to contribute a research article or a comprehensive review for consideration and publication in Brain Sciences (ISSN 2076-3425). Brain Sciences is an open access, peer-reviewed scientific journal that publishes original articles, critical reviews, research notes, and short communications on neuroscience. The scientific community and the general public can access the content free of charge as soon as it is published.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, Embase, PSYINDEX, PsycInfo, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 16.2 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 1.9 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2025).

Recognition of Reviewers:

reviewers who provide timely, thorough peer-review reports receive vouchers entitling them to a discount on the APC of their next publication in any MDPI journal, in appreciation of the work done.
