Dear Colleagues,

The journal Cancers is currently inviting applications for the Cancers 2022 Ph.D. Thesis Award. This prize will be awarded to two Ph.D. students or doctors who have produced a highly anticipated academic potential thesis. The applications will be assessed by an evaluation committee, which will be led by the Editor-in-Chief Prof. Dr. Samuel Mok.

Eligibility Requirements:

- The candidate must be a Ph.D. student or a doctor who has produced a highly anticipated academic potential thesis.
- The Ph.D. thesis must be their original work.
- The Ph.D. thesis must be defended between 1 September 2021 and 31 August 2022.
- Applicants are required to submit the following documents:
 - An executive summary of the Ph.D. thesis, of around 3000 words, in English;
 - A letter from the Ph.D. supervisor recommending the candidate for consideration for this award;
 - The candidate's CV, including a list of publications connected with the thesis;
 - An electronic copy of the Ph.D. thesis;
 - A scanned copy of the Ph.D. diploma (or certificate of studying at a school or research institute as a Ph.D. student who is intending to graduate or participate in graduation thesis defenses).

Selection Criteria:

- Quality of resume and publications;
- Relevance of the candidate and research description;
- Novelty of the candidate's Ph.D. thesis;
- Strength of the recommendation letter;
- Anticipated academic potential;
- Originality and impact of the research.

Prizes:

There will be two winners, each winner will be awarded:

- Bonus (CHF 800);
- An electronic certificate;
- Offer to publish a featured paper in Cancers, with the article processing charge (APC) waived, before the end of 2023.

The application deadline is 31 October 2022. The winner will be announced on the Cancers website by the end of December 2022.
