Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

This Special Issue focuses on the connections between Beckwith–Wiedemann Spectrum (BWSp) and cancer. Topics included will range from elements of clinical practice to human biology. Suggested topics include: the epidemiology of tumors and oncological screening in BWSp, the role of the different molecular subtypes of BWSp, the molecular alterations typical of BWSp in pathology, the variegated and diversified phenotypic spectrum of overgrowth and neoplasms, and the epigenetic basis of cancer.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Cancers (ISSN 2072-6694) is an international, online journal addressing both clinical and basic science issues related to cancer research. The journal will continue its open access format, which will certainly evolve to ensure that the journal takes full advantage of the rapidly changing world of information and knowledge dissemination. It publishes high-quality clinical, translational, and basic science research on cancer prevention, initiation, progression, and treatment, as well as other related topics, particularly to capture the most seminal studies in the rapidly growing area of immunology, immunotherapy, and tumor microenvironment.
