

Special Issue

Heterogeneous Catalysts for Organic Wastewater Treatment

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue will cover a wide range of heterogeneous catalysis and diverse heterogeneous catalytic processes for wastewater treatment. Research topics include but are not limited to the following:

- Design and synthesis of heterogeneous catalysts, such as Fe-based catalysts, Fe-free metal catalysts, and carbon-based catalysts;
- Structure, morphology, performance, and synthesis and reaction mechanisms of heterogeneous catalysis;
- Applications of diverse heterogeneous catalytic processes for wastewater treatment, such as heterogeneous catalytic ozonation, electro-Fenton, heterogeneous Fenton or Fenton-like, and adsorption processes.

This Special Issue introduces state-of-the-art research on “Heterogeneous Catalysts for Organic Wastewater Treatment” to promote altruistic collaboration between China and international researchers.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), Inspec, Ei Compendex, CAPlus / SciFinder, CAB Abstracts, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Chemistry, Physical) / CiteScore - Q1 (General Environmental Science )

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 16.6 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.7 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2025).
