Message from the Guest Editor

We are pleased to announce the launch of a new Special Issue, . This will be a collection of papers edited by the Editorial Board Members of the Section "Biocatalysis". It focuses on highlighting recent interesting investigations conducted in the laboratories of our section's EBMs and represents our journal as an attractive open access publishing platform for research data into enzymes and whole-cell biocatalysis. We look forward to receiving many outstanding submissions on the topics above, which will contribute to the creation of an important Special Issue in this journal.
