Highlights of the 3rd Meeting of the French Society for Stem Cell Research (FSSCR)

Message from the Guest Editors

The 3rd annual meeting of the French Society for Stem Cell Research (FSSCR) will be held in Lyon on November 18 and 19, 2019. It will be organized around four sessions: “Gastruloids and Blastoids”, “Organoids”, “Stem Cells at the Single Cell Level”, and “Epigenetics and Aging”. All participants wishing to submit an Abstract at any of these four sessions, whether for a poster or a short presentation, have the opportunity to also submit an article for publication in this Special Issue of Cells. This article can be a review or an original manuscript.

About the Journal

Message from the Editorial Board

Cells has become a solid international scientific journal that is now indexed on SCIE and in other databases. We have successfully introduced a special issues format so that these issues serve as mini-forums in specific areas of cell science. Cells encourages researchers to suggest new special issues, serve as special issues editors, and volunteer to be reviewers. Our main focus will remain on cell anatomy and physiology, the structure and function of organelles, cell adhesion and motility, and the regulation of intracellular signaling, growth, differentiation, and aging. We are open to both original research papers and reviews.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, MEDLINE, PMC, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Cell Biology) / CiteScore - Q1 (General Biochemistry, Genetics and Molecular Biology)

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 15.5 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.8 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the second half of 2025).
