

Special Issue

Innate Immune System in Immune-Mediated Inflammatory Diseases (IMIDs)

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue will include basic and translational original articles focused on aspects of innate immune responses related to IMIDs. Potential topics include autoimmune diseases, chronic inflammatory diseases, infectious diseases, immunodeficiencies, immunoproliferative disorders, or cancer.

- Keywords

rheumatoid arthritis
inflammatory bowel disease
psoriasis
psoriatic arthritis
vasculitis
Sjögren syndrome
ankylosing spondylitis
Behcet's disease
asthma
systemic lupus erythematosus
systemic sclerosis

About the Journal

Message from the Editorial Board

Cells has become a solid international scientific journal that is now indexed on SCIE and in other databases. We have successfully introduced a special issues format so that these issues serve as mini-forums in specific areas of cell science. Cells encourages researchers to suggest new special issues, serve as special issues editors, and volunteer to be reviewers. Our main focus will remain on cell anatomy and physiology, the structure and function of organelles, cell adhesion and motility, and the regulation of intracellular signaling, growth, differentiation, and aging. We are open to both original research papers and reviews.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, MEDLINE, PMC, CAPus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Cell Biology) / CiteScore - Q1 (General Biochemistry, Genetics and Molecular Biology)

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 16 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.7 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2025).
