Eye Diseases: From Cellular and Molecular Mechanisms to Novel Therapeutic Approaches

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue, “Eye Diseases: From Cellular and Molecular Mechanisms to Novel Therapeutic Approaches”, will cover a selection of recent research topics and current review articles related to the ocular pathological molecular mechanisms and management of eye disease. It will include papers investigating experimental and clinical studies examining potential treatments or preventive measures to attenuate eye disease. Up-to-date review articles, commentaries, and experimental papers are all welcome. We look forward to your contributions to this Special Issue.

About the Journal

Message from the Editorial Board

Cells has become a solid international scientific journal that is now indexed on SCIE and in other databases. We have successfully introduced a special issues format so that these issues serve as mini-forums in specific areas of cell science. Cells encourages researchers to suggest new special issues, serve as special issues editors, and volunteer to be reviewers. Our main focus will remain on cell anatomy and physiology, the structure and function of organelles, cell adhesion and motility, and the regulation of intracellular signaling, growth, differentiation, and aging. We are open to both original research papers and reviews.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, MEDLINE, PMC, CAPus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Cell Biology) / CiteScore - Q1 (General Biochemistry, Genetics and Molecular Biology)

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 16 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.7 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2025).
