Transport Modelling for Smart Cities

Message from the Guest Editors

The Transport of the 21st Century extended conference papers in case they have at least 50% extension will be published in Special Issue “Transport Modelling for Smart Cities” of Computation Journal. This Special Issue will consist of manuscripts describing the state-of-the-art of transport modeling for smart cities. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

- transport systems and processes, users and their activities with virtual activities,
- ITS, C-ITS and mobility management,
- spatial and transport planning, with space-time geography,
- traffic flow control with emerging transportation technologies and services.

We provide a 50% discount of Article Processing Charge (APC) - from 350 to 175 CHF (Swiss Francs) for papers extended from the Transport of the 21st Century conference.
