Special Issue Public Key Cryptography

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue aims to provide a platform for researchers to publish high-quality and original research papers presenting the recent development and state-of-the-art solutions on all the aspects of public key cryptography. The topics of interest to this Special Issue cover the scope of the 23rd Australasian Conference on Information Security and Privacy

(https://ssl.informatics.uow.edu.au/acisp2018/index.htm

l). Extended versions of papers presented at ACISP 2018 are sought, but this call for papers is also fully open to all those who wish to contribute by submitting a relevant research manuscript.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Cryptography is a new international journal which provides the state-of-the-art forum for original results in all areas of modern cryptography. Cryptography is published in open access format: research articles, reviews and other contents are released on the internet immediately after acceptance. Our journal welcomes submissions written from the theory and practices of modern cryptography, so that it may become a forum for exchange of new scientific developments between the cryptographers and the practitioners.

We would be pleased to welcome you as one of our authors.
