Message from the Guest Editors

In this special issue, we invite contributions on the synthesis of the coordination polymers (classical, solvothermal, mechanochemical) and characterization by various methods (SCXRD, PXRD, spectroscopic and thermal methods). While contributions reporting their properties (magnetic, luminescent, mechanical, etc.) and possible applications are encouraged, studies reporting coordination polymers because of their intriguing aesthetics are also welcome. We particularly encourage topological studies, gas and solvent sorption/desorption studies, including single-crystal-to-single-crystal phase transformations and solvatochromism.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Welcome to Crystals, the journal dedicated to the fascinating world of crystallographic research! Crystals are more than mere decorative elements; they hold the key to understanding the fundamental structure of matter. Our mission is to explore the crucial significance of this research across various fields. From medicine to technology, chemistry to geology, crystals play a vital role. Their structure provides insights into new advanced materials, innovative drugs, and groundbreaking technologies. Through Crystals, we delve into the microscopic world to discover solutions that will shape the future. Join us on a journey through the Crystals, where science merges with beauty and innovation.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges \(APC\) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE \(Web of Science\), Inspec, CAPus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q2 (Crystallography) / CiteScore - Q2 (Condensed Matter Physics)
