

Special Issue

2021 Article Series of Canadian Association of General Practitioners in Oncology

Message from the Guest Editors

The Canadian Association of General Practitioners in Oncology (CAGPO) is pleased to partner with Current Oncology for their upcoming third article series targeting all health professionals involved in oncology and palliative care. Our six-article educational series has been produced by recognized experts and will cover relevant and evidence-driven supportive care topics, as well as the latest treatment advances in oncology.
