Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

In the last years, orthodontics has increased its aspects of research and its cooperation with other disciplines. This Special Issue focuses on the most recent significant innovations in the orthodontic field, focusing attention on applied sciences and how they can be involved in orthodontic practice. The scope of this issue shall encompass the following aspects and their relationship with orthodontics:

- nanotechnology;
- microscopy;
- biology;
- molecules;
- materials;
- nanomaterials;
- coatings;
- medicine;
- behavioral sciences;
- engineering.

For this purpose, we invite you to submit original research articles and reviews to any of the topics mentioned above.

Thank you in advance for your contribution!
