Health Diagnosis with Smart Wearable Devices and AI Driven Medical Cloud

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue invites researchers, scientists and medical professionals to submit their innovative ideas and experimental works related to health condition monitoring using smart-wearable-devices, SWD data processing with machine-learning and deep-learning methods, recent developments in SWD design and implementation, and integration of SWD with AI and cloud for remote patient care. This Special Issue also welcomes clinical trials executed with SWD, AI and the medical-cloud, remote monitoring of SWD data and mobile-app development for the SWD and AI.
