Evaluation and Management of Developmental Disabilities

Message from the Guest Editor

We are pleased to invite you to contribute to our Special Issue, entitled “Evaluation and Management of Developmental Disabilities”. In this Special Issue, we will present articles outlining innovations covering a wide scope of topics related to people with DDs in general. In addition, we hope that this Special Issue will contribute to the literature on this topic and shed light on individuals with DDs. We hope that our efforts will (1) facilitate awareness of rare developmental disabilities; (2) enhance the knowledge of assessments in individuals with DDs; (3) evoke discussions on how to improve diagnosis in an array of topics related to those with IDD; (4) suggest new ideas that will assist those with DDs and their families in daily situations. To initiate the process of being published in this Special Issue, please submit a one-page abstract to the address mentioned above, written in the following manner: introduction (including the scientific background and highlighting the importance of this research area), the aims of the research, results, and conclusions.
