

Special Issue

Biodiversity and Conservation of Vascular Flora

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue will focus on new interdisciplinary research and significant advances in biodiversity and the conservation of vascular flora. Authors are encouraged to submit their manuscripts on the following topics: (1) description of new taxa (species and subspecies); (2) floristic studies (e.g., annotated checklists, comparative analysis between historical and current data); (3) first national reports for native and alien vascular plants; (4) taxonomic revisions of critical groups; (5) patterns of vascular species assembly in relation to different spatial and temporal scales; (6) threats to the conservation of vascular flora; (7) conservation actions for vascular flora.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Diversity (ISSN 1424-2818) is a scholarly journal that covers all areas of diversity research. Our distinguished editorial board and refereeing process ensures the highest degree of scientific rigor for publishing. Original research articles and timely reviews are released online, with unlimited free access.

We invite papers and reviews on multidisciplinary topics of diversity that bridge organismic diversity (systematics, biodiversity, phylogeny, population genetics, and evolution) and molecular diversity (phytochemistry and biophysics).

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubAg, GEOBASE, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Biodiversity Conservation) / CiteScore - Q1
(Agricultural and Biological Sciences (miscellaneous))

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 16.6 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.8 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the second half of 2025).
