Diversity of Microbial Eukaryotes

Message from the Guest Editor

Compiling a Special Issue on the "Diversity of Microbial Eukaryotes" requires recognition that diversity means different things to different people. Thus, contributors may focus on individual or multiple aspects of diversity as that term pertains to microbial eukaryotes, including, but not limited to, genetic diversity within a species or other taxonomic unit, evolutionary history, metabolic or taxonomic diversity in communities, the diversity of lifestyles, or conservation, ecology, or biogeography.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Diversity (ISSN 1424-2818) is a scholarly journal that covers all areas of diversity research. Our distinguished editorial board and refereeing process ensures the highest degree of scientific rigor for publishing. Original research articles and timely reviews are released online, with unlimited free access.

We invite papers and reviews on multidisciplinary topics of diversity that bridge organismic diversity (systematics, biodiversity, phylogeny, population genetics, and evolution) and molecular diversity (phytochemistry and biophysics).

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubAg, GEOBASE, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Biodiversity Conservation) / CiteScore - Q1
(Agricultural and Biological Sciences (miscellaneous))

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 16.6 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.8 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the second half of 2025).
