

Special Issue

Advances in Economics of Education

Message from the Guest Editors

The aim of this Special Issue of Economies on “Advances in Economics of Education” is to study the big current changes in macroeconomics of education (the “demand” for advances in economics of Education): glocalism, sustainability, new definitions of human capital, and the need to orient education toward new targets of education (communities, intermediate bodies, social capital). Particularly, the topics of interest are:

- Analysis of organizational innovations that must be introduced to face big changes (policies):
  - Levels of “optimal” mixes of multi- and interdisciplinary education (teaching program planning and flexibility; mix of theory and experiences);
  - Organizing the training and recruitment of teachers;
  - Rethinking long life learning;
  - Evaluating—in the perspective of multi- and interdisciplinarity—learning performances (character skills);
- ...
