Message from the Guest Editors

We call for papers that address the teaching of English in a multilingual world, with a focus on issues such as:

- English language teacher education for a multilingual world;
- Researching English language acquisition beyond middle-class, higher education students;
- Decolonising English language teaching in a multilingual world;
- The place of translanguaging in English language teaching;
- Linguistic superdiversity and English as a medium of instruction;
- ‘Troubling the waters’, using lingua receptiva in multilingual ESL classrooms;
- Linguaging and languagised learning.

We look forward to your contributions.
