Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

This Special Issue will be developed within the framework of the International Congress of Education and Technology in Sciences—CISETC (<http://www.usat.edu.pe/cisetec2021/>), whereby the best articles that are presented will be asked for an extended version.

The CISETC will receive articles grouped as follows:

1. Didactics in STEAM, oriented to the teaching of Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Mathematics at all educational levels.
2. Development and use of technologies for STEAM education, considering the influence of technology in educational and pedagogical processes. Here, you will find the articles presented on the development of technologies and the use of technologies to favor the achievement of learning within the framework of STEAM education.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

From its first issue in 2011, Education Sciences (ISSN 2227-7102) has grown as a scholarly international open access journal. Its aim remains to publish extended full-length research papers that have the scope to substantively address current issues in education. As a member of the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE), our goal has been to disseminate high quality research. Our publisher, MDPI, takes the responsibility to enforce a rigorous double-blind peer-review together with strict ethical policies and standards to ensure to add high quality scientific works to the field of scholarly publication.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, ESCI (Web of Science), Educational Research Abstracts, PscyInfo, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q1 (Education and Educational Research) / CiteScore - Q1 (Education)
