

Special Issue

Education and Diversity: Innovative Approaches for Inclusion, Diversity and Personalized Learning

Message from the Guest Editors

The International Congress on Education and Diversity serves as an interdisciplinary forum that brings together education professionals from various levels and fields. This Special Issue aims to compile innovative research and experiences that address educational inclusion, diversity and personalized learning. Authors are invited to submit papers exploring topics such as cultural and religious diversity, sexual diversity, the integration of educational technologies, inclusive education policies, education in rural contexts, and talent development in education. Our goal is to foster an academic dialogue that promotes equitable educational practices tailored to the needs of all students.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

From its first issue in 2011, Education Sciences (ISSN 2227-7102) has grown as a scholarly international open access journal. Its aim remains to publish extended full-length research papers that have the scope to substantively address current issues in education. As a member of the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE), our goal has been to disseminate high quality research. Our publisher, MDPI, takes the responsibility to enforce a rigorous double-blind peer-review together with strict ethical policies and standards to ensure to add high quality scientific works to the field of scholarly publication.
