Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

Competitive sport at all levels—grassroots, collegiate, professional, and Olympic—play many roles in our world. This Special Issue is open to all aspects of competitive sport within the framework of EJIPHE. Quantitative, qualitative, or mixed-methods articles are welcome on any topic investigating the psychology, health, and education aspects of competitive sport. With the Winter Olympics just completed, articles focusing on Olympic sports and issues are encouraged.
