Innovative Design and Control Technologies for High-Overload Motor in Transportation Electrification

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue aims to explore recent advancements, innovative solutions, and unresolved challenges in the development and application of high-overload motors for transportation electrification. Topics include, but are not limited to, the design and optimization of high-overload motors, advanced control and drive techniques, thermal management and cooling systems, as well as literature reviews, applications, and discussions of novel materials in high-overload motors.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Electronics is a multidisciplinary journal designed to appeal to a diverse audience of research scientists, practitioners, and developers in academia and industry. The journal is devoted to fast publication of latest technological breakthroughs, cutting-edge developments, and timely reviews of current and emerging technologies related to the broad field of electronics. Experimental and theoretical results are published as regular peer-reviewed articles or as articles within Special Issues guestedited by leading experts in selected topics of interest.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), CAPlus / SciFinder, Inspec, Ei Compendex and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Engineering, Electrical and Electronic) /
CiteScore - Q1 (Signal Processing)

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 14.8 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.9 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2026).
