

Special Issue

Intelligence Control and Applications of Intelligence Robotics

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue focuses on the recent advancements in intelligent control and its applications in the field of robotics. The issue includes research papers that provide insights into the current state-of-the-art techniques in intelligent control and their applications in robotics. The topics covered in this Special Issue include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Intelligent control theory for robotic systems
- Learning-based approaches for intelligent control
- Multi-agent intelligent control for robotics
- Applications of intelligent control in autonomous robots
- Intelligent control for collaborative robots
- Human-robot interaction with intelligent control
- Intelligent control for swarm robotics
- Robust control theory
- Network control system

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Electronics is a multidisciplinary journal designed to appeal to a diverse audience of research scientists, practitioners, and developers in academia and industry. The journal is devoted to fast publication of latest technological breakthroughs, cutting-edge developments, and timely reviews of current and emerging technologies related to the broad field of electronics. Experimental and theoretical results are published as regular peer-reviewed articles or as articles within Special Issues guest-edited by leading experts in selected topics of interest.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), CAPlus /
SciFinder, Inspec, Ei Compendex and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Engineering, Electrical and Electronic) / CiteScore - Q1 (Electrical and Electronic Engineering)

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 16.8 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.4 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2025).
