

Special Issue

Human–Computer Interaction: Information and Interaction Design

Message from the Guest Editor

In this Special Issue, we want to focus on new user-centered methods and tools that support the design of interactive systems that are based on emergent technologies and insights from the social and behavioral sciences. We invite authors to submit original manuscripts that present breakthroughs in conceptual, theoretical, methodological, and practical research on a broad range of topics, including but not limited to:

- Theories and concepts to understand people in the use of digital artifacts;
- Design and implementation of novel digital artifacts/applications that apply emerging technologies such as Artificial Intelligence, Data analytics, the Internet of Things, and VR/AR;
- Evaluation of novel interaction techniques and tools;
- Novel methodologies and approaches in HCI/design;
- Social aspects of HCI/design with emerging technologies.

Welcome to contribute.
