

Special Issue

Intelligent Control and Computing in Advanced Robotics

Message from the Guest Editors

This main purpose of this Special Issue is to collect contributions regarding recent advances and trend analysis in the wide spectrum of research fields which include algorithm development with rule-based knowledge AI modeling, neural networks, genetic algorithms, and deep learning. Furthermore, combination of these high-level computing with traditional data-driven control strategies may include trajectory planning, SLAM, and navigation. We encourage researchers in this field to contribute their original papers to share their technical achievements with the readers.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Electronics is a multidisciplinary journal designed to appeal to a diverse audience of research scientists, practitioners, and developers in academia and industry. The journal is devoted to fast publication of latest technological breakthroughs, cutting-edge developments, and timely reviews of current and emerging technologies related to the broad field of electronics. Experimental and theoretical results are published as regular peer-reviewed articles or as articles within Special Issues guest-edited by leading experts in selected topics of interest.

Torino, 10129 Torino, Italy

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), CAPus /
SciFinder, Inspec, Ei Compendex and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Engineering, Electrical and Electronic) /
CiteScore - Q1 (Electrical and Electronic Engineering)

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 16.8 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.4 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2025).
