

Special Issue

Advances in Real-Time Artificial Intelligence and Multi-Agent Systems

Message from the Guest Editor

REAL-TIME ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE The first aim of this special issue is to offer an opportunity to researchers who are using classical AI algorithms in practical application contexts, where time constraints need to be guaranteed. REAL-TIME MULTI-AGENT SYSTEMS The second aim of this special issue is that of gathering contributions from both theoretical and pragmatic perspectives, targeting the employment of MAS in IoT and CPS through the exploitation of methodologies, algorithms and applications from the Real Time Community. We are looking at the next-generation Intelligent CPS, capable to face the challenges of the “ever more connected” IoT era. Please click here to find more information! Welcome to contribute!”
