

Special Issue

Medical Image Computing and Analysis

Message from the Guest Editors

The aim of this Special Issue of Electronics is to present state-of-the-art investigations in medical image computing and analysis for improving current applications and exploring novel applications in medicine. It will also be a question in this Special Issue to confront and make the link between the classical approaches based on interpretable and flexible models and the new trend represented by the approaches based on deep learning which seem to become widespread. Towards achieving this aim, we invite researchers to contribute original and unique articles, as well as review articles. Topics include, but are not limited to, the following areas:

- Medical Image Processing and Analysis
- Video Processing and Analysis for Medical Diagnosis
- Video Guided Surgery
- Medical Image Datasets for Deep Learning Models
- Computer-Aided Diagnosis
- Learning-Based Image Enhancement
- Weakly-Supervised Medical Image Segmentation
- Image Visualization and Reconstruction
- Mixed, Augmented, and Virtual Reality
- Image Registration
- Image Guided Navigation
- Deep Learning for Medical Imaging
