

Special Issue

Underwater Optical and Acoustic Communications: Research and Challenges

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue aims to collect high-quality research papers on underwater wireless communications and networking systems, based on acoustic and optical technology. The topics of interests include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Acoustic and optical channel modeling, estimation and prediction;
- Modulation, coding and detection techniques;
- Signal processing for channel equalization and interference mitigation;
- Multiple-Input Multiple-Output systems;
- Optical and acoustic transceiver design;
- Multiple access and routing protocols;
- Hybrid optical/acoustic networks;
- Internet of Underwater Things;
- Experimental results from field trials;
- Applications and case studies about underwater optical/acoustic communications.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Electronics is a multidisciplinary journal designed to appeal to a diverse audience of research scientists, practitioners, and developers in academia and industry. The journal is devoted to fast publication of latest technological breakthroughs, cutting-edge developments, and timely reviews of current and emerging technologies related to the broad field of electronics. Experimental and theoretical results are published as regular peer-reviewed articles or as articles within Special Issues guest-edited by leading experts in selected topics of interest.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), CAPus /
SciFinder, Inspec, Ei Compendex and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Physics, Applied) / CiteScore - Q1 (Electrical and Electronic Engineering)

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 16.4 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.4
days (median values for papers published in this journal in the second half of 2024).
