

Special Issue

Blockchain Technology and Its Applications

Message from the Guest Editor

Blockchain is a technology capable of creating new values in various fields, but there are still many technical barriers to be solved, and it is time to discover more application services that blockchain can be applied to. This Special Issue focuses on technical issues that need to be overcome to activate blockchain, and various application services that can be applied to blockchain.

- Efficiency of blockchain
- Scalability of blockchain
- Security in blockchain
- Blockchain platforms
- Blockchain technologies for media and content
- Blockchain technologies for healthcare applications
- Blockchain technologies for public services
- Emerging applications combined with blockchain
- Other technical issues to combine blockchain with emerging applications

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Electronics is a multidisciplinary journal designed to appeal to a diverse audience of research scientists, practitioners, and developers in academia and industry. The journal is devoted to fast publication of latest technological breakthroughs, cutting-edge developments, and timely reviews of current and emerging technologies related to the broad field of electronics. Experimental and theoretical results are published as regular peer-reviewed articles or as articles within Special Issues guest-edited by leading experts in selected topics of interest.
