Message from the Guest Editor

When Energies contacted me with an invitation to become their Guest Editor in a Special Issue completely dedicated to power-to-gas, I thought about all the results waiting for publication on your and my desks and could not say no. This is how I have come to contact you today with the kind invitation to join me and take the chance to make some noise about power-to-gas-related results from our various research projects.

The title of the Special Issue will be broad to give space for as many interesting pieces of research as possible, no matter how small or detailed they may appear at first glance. We shall invite technical as well as theoretical papers, and all suggestions, regional contexts, and technologies related to hydrogen and power-to-gas are welcome to be suggested by all of you.

- power-to-gas
- P2G
- PtG
- hydrogen
- H<sub>2</sub>
- decarbonization
- energy transition
- E-fuels
- energy conversion
- energy storage
- energy system
- energy technology
