Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

This Special Issue aims to put together new findings that can contribute to enriching the literature regarding the marketing approach in energy economics, both from the demand and supply perspectives. Topics of interest in this Special Issue include, but are not limited to:

- energy economics
- renewable energy
- energy demand
- energy supply
- consumer behavior on energy market
- sustainable development of energy economics
- affordable and clean energy
- energy for sustainable development
- green economy
- circular economy
- marketing strategies for energy supply
- marketing researches in energy economics
- energy and global issues

Other themes of interest in energy economics are welcome!

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Energies is an international, open access journal in energy engineering and research. The journal publishes original papers, review articles, technical notes, and letters. Authors are encouraged to submit manuscripts which bridge the gaps between research, development and implementation. The journal provides a forum for information on research, innovation, and demonstration in the areas of energy conversion and conservation, the optimal use of energy resources, optimization of energy processes, mitigation of environmental pollutants, and sustainable energy systems.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), Ei Compendex, RePEc, Inspec, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: CiteScore - Q1 (Engineering (miscellaneous))
