

Special Issue

Clean and Efficient Use of Energy

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue is dedicated to the Clean and Efficient Use of Energy. Therefore, we invite original papers addressing the various topics related to the cleanliness, efficiency and sustainability of energy. In this Issue, the types of paper may include reviews, original research articles, highlights, perspectives, short communications, commentaries, and so on. The topics of interest include but are not limited to:

- 1.Biomass energy conversion and utilization;
- Conversion and utilization of CO₂;
- Elimination of pollutants in the use of energy;
- Electrocatalysis in energy applications;
- Clean alternative fuels;
- Emissions and controls in the use of energy;
- Clean and efficient utilization of coal;
- Clean utilization of methanol, ethanol and derived fuels;
- Hydrogen storage and release;
- Evaluating and implementing alternative energy approaches.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Energies is an international, open access journal in energy engineering and research. The journal publishes original papers, review articles, technical notes, and letters. Authors are encouraged to submit manuscripts which bridge the gaps between research, development and implementation. The journal provides a forum for information on research, innovation, and demonstration in the areas of energy conversion and conservation, the optimal use of energy resources, optimization of energy processes, mitigation of environmental pollutants, and sustainable energy systems.
