

Special Issue

Evaluating the Impact of Energy Policies and Energy Economics: Trends, Risks and Challenges

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue aims to bring together works that explain the EU Green Deal and its impact in energy transition and management, with special attention to the second round effects and how to fix them. This call for papers includes original research articles, comprehensive reviews, and well-documented case studies. The following topics will be addressed:

- Green Deal policies.
- Clean energy transition.
- Green Deal management and second round effects.
- Measures adopted for the energy transition.
- The reduction of polluting energies.
- Stimulus of green energies and their efficiency.
- The energy markets, negotiation and conflict-resolution methods.
- The improvement of renewable energy (green and blue energies).
- Digital economy and energy issues in the EU.
- Wellbeing economics and energy issues in the EU.
- Other related topics (please ask the editors prior to submitting a paper on a different topic).

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Energies is an international, open access journal in energy engineering and research. The journal publishes original papers, review articles, technical notes, and letters. Authors are encouraged to submit manuscripts which bridge the gaps between research, development and implementation. The journal provides a forum for information on research, innovation, and demonstration in the areas of energy conversion and conservation, the optimal use of energy resources, optimization of energy processes, mitigation of environmental pollutants, and sustainable energy systems.
